

NAB should give Satellite Radio a break. Traffic and Weather channel is a great and extremely convenient feature. It is great for the consumers! We don't want to give it up just because a handful of companies feel threatened that their revenues will decline. If they want to compete with Satellite Radio, they should come up with sound strategies rather than trying to silence XMSR.